Welcome

It hardly seems like a year ago that we were putting away our tuxedos and mothballing our sparkly dresses, and here we are once again about to launch into another four weeks of Cabaret Fringe-y goodness.

Now in its seventh year, Cabaret Fringe has earned a permanent place on Adelaide's festival calendar and provides an ideal alternative for audiences looking to discover some fresh talent. It's accessible, it's affordable and it's a whole lot of fun!

For the artists, Cab Fringe is a chance to get their work seen. It's a chance to craft new stories, write new songs or pay homage to a cabaret star of the past. It's a chance to play in one of Adelaide's boutique venues to audiences who want to laugh, or cry, or to sing along to their favourite songs, or to be taken on a journey to somewhere else. Ultimately, it's a chance for everyone to be sassy, cool and smooth!

This year, Cabaret Fringe makes its home in more than 10 venues across the city, who will play host to over 100 performances, from swing dance to Edith Piaf, and from flamenco to Leonard Cohen. There's a show on boat, a show for kids, there's Australiana, and of course, Paris. There really is something for everyone at Cabaret Fringe.

None of this would be possible without the willing support of the venues and their staff, the volunteers, family and friends... and of course, the artists, whose work we invite you to see.

And with that out of the way... it's Cabaret Fringe time!

Eugene Suleau
Cabaret Fringe Festival Director

50 Forever

Featuring Jamie Jewell as Candy Chambers

This is a uniquely hilarious cabaret experience. Chambers' show "50 Forever" celebrates her torrid past as a featured actress in the Adult Entertainment Industry. In recent times Candy has taken control of her life to reinvent herself as a cabaret star via incarceration and rehabilitation. She spreads her joyful philosophies and sings live with her band "The All Sorts". She dances, tells stories of her colourful past and completely wins your heart. "If my life were a television series and every year was a new season, I'd say the pinnacle of it all was season fifty. That's when I was awash in a tsunami of orgasmic insight with the sweetest understanding of being rehabilitated. After going through so much, as if life isn't complicated enough, I understood." - Candy Chambers.

Elizabeth McCall: Two Different Paths Album Launch

"Liz wraps her quirky bel canto around lyrically ambitious, expansive ballads about life, love and domesticity. It's inevitably reminiscent of Kate Bush... and how could that ever be anything but a glowing compliment?" - tolitasmusings.blogspot.co.uk

After a decade performing in London, Elizabeth McCall launches an album of songs inspired by her travels, home sickness and love. With a flawless voice honed by years of classical performing, and song-writing influenced by her exploration into other genres, this evening showcases her beautiful songs with exquisite arrangements by her husband, violinist Julian Ferraretto.
