Welcome

2016 Cab Fringe Team: Eugene Suleau & Paul Boylon

Here it is June again... and that means Cabaret Fringe time in Adelaide.

This year we celebrate the ninth edition of Cab Fringe with La Boheme as its base, and over that time, the festival has earned a place on Adelaide's arts calendar. It provides an ideal alternative for audiences looking to discover some fresh new talent. It's accessible, affordable and a whole lot of fun!

For artists, Cabaret Fringe is a chance to get their work seen. It's a chance to craft new stories, write new songs, or pay homage to a star of the past. It's a chance to play in one of Adelaide's boutique venues to audiences who want to laugh, or cry, or to sing along with their favourite songs. It's a chance for everyone to share in some good times.

This year will be no exception, with a number of local and interstate acts appearing for the first time.

For three and a half weeks, at 10 venues across the city and suburbs, over 100 independent artists will present 100 performances that represent the diversity of the cabaret genre. From Joni Mitchell to Sinatra, from Paris to Rio, from the magic of circus to just plain magic, there's something for everyone at Cabaret Fringe.

A big thank you goes out to the wonderful venues and their staff, and to the volunteers, families and friends, who provide the support that allows our artists to do what they do best.

Now... let's CABARET!
