

PRESS RELEASE: FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Jen de Ness in SEE THINGS LIKE YOU

Perth based singer/songwriter Jen de Ness presents the premiere of her new Jazz Cabaret "See things Like You" for the Adelaide Cabaret Fringe. Featuring the smooth, sultry and entertaining vocals of Jen with slick guitar playing & backing Vocals from fellow composer Bill Atkinson, this funny, heart-warming and uplifting show will remain with you long after the last song has ended.

Cool Jazz, beat poetry, beautiful blues, and sultry bossas will get you in the mood to leave behind your workday and reignite your dreams. In this show Jen and Bill share their eclectic original tunes alongside reimagining's of jazz favorites.

"I'm delighted to share these songs for the first time with Adelaide audiences as part of the Cabaret Fringe Festival." Said Jen. "This show is a culmination of years of joy playing these songs to Jazz and Cabaret audiences across London to Cardiff and Melbourne to Perth, but this is the first time these songs have all come together in the one show."

"Everybody fits in at the Green Tile Tango Club, it's the place to be... seen", says the song by Jen and Bill which they penned after a trip to their local Tango Club and is used as the setting for the cabaret.

"This show is about connection, " says Jen "We've all been dumped, by a lover, a mother, a workplace or a broken dream. Whether you're looking for a story, a song, a lover, a lesson, or just a great night out, the green tile tango club has it all!"

The title track to the show, is a cool swing tune called "See things like you" which Jen wrote in 1992 and is a regular tune for her Septet. It will be sung by Jen's Kerouac inspired character, Sam who comes to the club to revive his ailing writing career. The other main character is Jaquie, a hilariously sultry combination of Piaf, Dietrich and Lee, a woman who got on the plane, got dumped and lived to tell the tale.

"Sultry, scintillating and completely mesmerising." Pheasantry Club, London.

"Jen impressed us all at The Crazy Coqs in London - her musicality, her humour - she gets it, and she knows how to entertain an audience." Harold Sanditen, CRAZY COQS
